SPECIMEN - FICTITIOUS COMPANY - NOT A REAL DOCUMENT

Onboarding and AML questionnaire - EXAMPLE PAYMENTS LTD

Completed by Sam Placeholder, Chief Risk Officer and MLRO, on 1 September 2026.

A. Regulatory status

Q1. Is the firm regulated? Yes. Authorised Payment Institution, FCA firm reference number 999999 (specimen).

Q2. Does the firm hold customer funds? Yes. Customer funds are safeguarded in a segregated safeguarding account with Example Bank plc, reconciled daily.

B. Ownership

Q3. Who owns more than 25% of the company? Alex Sample (60%) and Jamie Example (28%). Example Ventures Fund I LP holds the remaining shares.

C. Business and relationship

Q4. Business model: a payments app that lets small UK and Irish businesses collect card and open-banking payments. Customers are small and medium-sized businesses in the UK and Ireland.

Q5. Purpose of the account: operational account for fee income and supplier payments, plus a safeguarding account. Expected volume: about 400 payments a month, around GBP 1.2 million a month.

Q6. Source of funds: a seed funding round of GBP 2 million led by Example Ventures Fund I LP in 2024, and transaction fee revenue.

Q7. Does the firm trade from its registered office? Yes.

D. Financial crime controls

Q8. MLRO: Sam Placeholder.

Q9. Policies: AML and counter-terrorist financing policy, sanctions policy and customer due diligence procedure, all approved by the board in January 2026.

Q10. Last independent AML audit: March 2026, by a specimen audit firm. No high-risk findings.